

Family to Family EHDI Webinar Series: Exploring the Possibilities Webinar 2: What Opportunities Lie Ahead

Are you wondering what your child's school years might be like? Did you know that the Iowa School for the Deaf provides opportunities for D/HH students at different locations around the state? While the school is based in Council Bluffs, the reach of its programs and the students participating in those programs are scattered throughout Iowa. John Cool and Tina Caloud, staff members of the Iowa School for the Deaf, will open this webinar by briefly sharing about the opportunities available. After that, Nichole Jergens, Austin Stage, and Kali Nipper, current D/HH High School students around Iowa, will share their thoughts and experiences with you to help you prepare for the years ahead.

Wednesday December 16th from 6-7 PM
