

This checklist includes important steps along the path to adulthood. This list may be helpful for students, parents, teachers and service providers as they plan for transition. The student's skills, interests and needs will help determine which items on the checklist should be considered.

Activities may occur in regular classes, through the IEP, at home or in the community. Resources to support the activities are included.

Beginning High School

Review the Elementary Through High School (link) list as needed to help determine activities to continue development of needed skills.

The focus of the of the IEP shifts to planning for life after high school when the youth turns 14. Development of skills for adult living, education and training and employment, and practicing those skills at school, home and in the community is key to the student's successful transition to adulthood. Learn about each step of Iowa's Transition Model.
